A Whole New Ballgame

Baseball season is back—and so are ways to get to the ballgame without the stress of traffic.

- The Dodger Stadium Express shuttles game-goers from Union Station and the South Bay for all home games—and your Dodger ticket is good for the fare.
- Metrolink Angels Express is only $7, dropping riders off just steps from Angel Stadium at the Anaheim ARTIC station.

Car Sharing Now at 20+ Metro Stations

Metro has added car sharing service at more than 20 of its transit Park & Rides. Both customers and car owners who want to rent their vehicle register on an app that they use to lock, unlock, start and stop the car. Sign up at getaround.com.

Blue Line Update

Twelve Metro Blue Line stations are out of service through late May as the rail line undergoes improvements. Shuttle buses replace rail service during this time. Visit metro.net/newblue for updates and alternate travel options.

Introducing...SB Loop

SB Loop is a new program that provides up to $400 monthly in subsidies for vanpools traveling to the San Bernardino County Transportation Authority (SBCTA) service area.

To qualify, vanpools must lease a five to 15-passenger van through CalVans or Enterprise, have a minimum of 70% ridership at start-up (maintaining 50%), and travel at least 30 miles round trip, 12 days a month.

Half-Price on OC Flex

Group rides on OC Flex are half price until April 28. OC Flex is an on-demand, curb-to-curb shuttle serving portions of Orange County. To get the discount, you must book and pay using the mobile app. To find out more—including exclusive discounts and offers for OC Flex riders—visit octa.net/ocflex.

Transit In Brief

New shuttles at Metrolink Stations.

Commuters who ride Metrolink or OC Bus to the Tustin and Irvine stations can transfer free to two new iShuttles, fixed-route local service. See the route map for iShuttle's Route 405F and 404E at octa.net.

Catch the Road Runner. During March and April, Joshua Tree National Park is offering Road Runner Shuttle bus service into the park. Not only is the shuttle free, but park entrance fees are waived for riders as well.

Somis gets its first ever bus stop. VCTC now offers bus service to Somis via its East-West Connector bus route—the first time that Somis has been served by public transit. The new stop is at Somis Road and Rice Street.
