Rideshare & Win

Reimagine Your Commute During Rideshare Week

Rideshare Week is Oct. 7-11. Join the thousands of people who'll skip the solo drive and get to work by carpool, vanpool, bus, rail, bike—or even by walking!

Make the Pledge, Win Prizes

When you rideshare to work at least one day during Rideshare Week, you'll have a chance to win prizes. Here's how:

Los Angeles County—Log in to use the Metro Commute Calendar at ridematch.info and register how you get to work each day to win a weekend getaway, gift cards and more.

Orange County—To make the pledge to rideshare, go to octa.net/RideshareWeek. You could qualify to win an Apple Watch or FitBit, among other prizes.

Riverside/San Bernardino Counties—Win any of more than 275 prizes including vacation packages, electronics and more by filling out a pledge card at work, online at IEcommuter.org or send a pledge by email to rideshareweek@IECommuter.org.

Ventura County—Pledge to participate in Rideshare Week at rideweek.org and you could win a $100 Visa gift card.

Take the Train to Rams Games

Skip traffic and parking costs by taking the train to Rams Games. Metro Rail stops right outside LA Memorial Coliseum. Metrolink is adding round-trip trains on game days to Union Station for only $10, with free transfers to Metro Rail.

A New Blue

The Blue Line will open late this month with the addition of new digital screens, signage, tracks, system wiring, artwork and more. The reopening will include a community celebration and free rides. Check for updates at metro.net/newblue.

Did You Know...?

It can take more than one mile to stop a train. See tracks? Think train!
