VCTC Seeks Input on Unmet Transportation Needs at Public Meetings to be held in January and February 2020

Ventura, Calif. – The Ventura County Transportation Commission \(VCTC\) invites the public to attend an Unmet Transit Needs community meeting or public hearing to let local government leaders hear ideas about how to improve bus service in Ventura County. The meetings are an opportunity for community members to tell VCTC what can be done to improve transit and to help get local residents get where they need to go.

“The annual Unmet Transit Needs process presents an opportunity to provide feedback and help improve public transit in Ventura County,” said Martin Erickson, VCTC transit director. “Your input helps local transit operators to offer the best and most effective service to passengers.”

Three community meetings and one public hearing are scheduled at the following times and locations:

Community Meetings:

Thursday, Jan. 9 at 5 p.m.
Moorpark Community Center
Citrus Room
799 Moorpark Avenue
