VCTC Mourns the Loss of Ventura County Supervisor Carmen Ramirez

CAMARILLO, Calif. – The Ventura County Transportation Commission (VCTC) joins the entire Ventura County community in mourning the sudden loss of Ventura County Board of Supervisors Chair Carmen Ramirez.

As a county supervisor, Ramirez also served as one of VCTC's 17 commissioners. She joined VCTC in 2021 and represented the agency on the California Association of Councils of Governments (CALCOG).

"I am greatly saddened by this tragedy. I have known Carmen for many years, and had the privilege of serving with her on VCTC and other public boards. Carmen is one of the finest public servants I know," said VCTC Chair and Camarillo City Council Member Tony Trembley.

VCTC Executive Director Martin Erickson said Ramirez was a strong advocate for safe, accessible and equitable transportation options for all.

"Her voice and passion for helping those in Ventura County will be greatly missed. VCTC extends its deepest sympathy to her family, her friends and the community that she worked so tirelessly to support."
