VCTC statement on incident involving bus, bicyclist in Ventura

CAMARILLO, Calif. – The Ventura County Transportation Commission (VCTC) is aware of an incident that occurred Thursday involving a VCTC bus and a bicyclist on Telegraph Road in Ventura.

VCTC and its bus operator, RATP Dev, will be cooperating fully in the investigation of the incident, said VCTC’s Executive Director Martin Erickson.

“Our thoughts are focused on the health and well-being of the cyclist as they receive medical treatment. The safety and security of our community and employees are our number one priority and our team is working closely with local authorities during the active investigation,” Erickson said.
